Holy Temples on Mount Zion

1. Holy temples on Mount Zion, In a lofty splendor shine,
   Avenues to exaltation, Symbols of a love divine.

2. Merciful and gracious Father, Purify our hearts, we pray;
   Bless our mission of redemption In thy hallowed house each day,

3. Sing aloud, ye heavenly chorus, Anthems of eternal praise
   To the glorious King Immanuel! Sing with Saints of latter days!

And their kindly portals beckon To serenity and prayer,
   Till at length our faithful kin-dred, Sealed with us externally

Let the mountains shout for gladness, And the valleys joyful be,

Valiant children of the promise, Pledged to sacred service there.
   In celestial bonds of union, Sing hosannas unto thee.

While the stars acclaim in rapture, For the prisoners shall go free.

Text: Archibald F. Bennett, 1896–1965. © 1948 IRI
Doctrine and Covenants 138:47–48
Doctrine and Covenants 128:22–24