“A woman of good understanding.”

- She was smart and righteous. But her husband was foolish and wicked.
- A warrior named David asked her husband for food. Her husband refused. David was angry.
- She sent food to David so he wouldn't hurt her husband. She saved many lives.

(1 Samuel 25:3)

“[He sought] the law of the Lord.”

- He was a scribe. He took care of the scriptures.
- He read and explained the scriptures to the people so they could understand.
- He was a great teacher. He helped many people learn the gospel.

(Ezra 7:10)
