Til styrke for de unge

An impressionistic painting of a church with a tall steeple, palm trees, and three people standing in the foreground. The style is characterized by visible brushstrokes and a vibrant, somewhat abstract color palette. The church is white with a tall, pointed steeple topped with a golden orb. In the foreground, three people are seen from behind, looking towards the church. The scene is set outdoors with several palm trees and a green lawn. The sky is a mix of light blue and white, suggesting a bright, sunny day.
