

“With Greater Trust in Jesus”
Inspired by the April 2021 General Conference address of Elder Neil L. Andersen

There is no soul Christ does not love, no life beyond His caring;
No child for whom there is no plan, no sin He is not bearing.
So come what may along life’s path the Lord is always with us
To lift us up in our despair, His constant love to give us.

He sees the future and the past; He sees all things so clearly.
He knows the challenges we face and loves us each so dearly.
So come what may His love is sure despite our mortal weakness
His love will heal the pains of all who come to Him in meekness.

He knows the longings of our heart, our triumphs and our yearning
He lends us strength to from day to day and tutors us while learning
So come what may no loss will last, His grace brings compensation
His mercy rights the wrongs of all and brings to pass salvation

He knows the pain and loss we feel and counts the tears shed mourning
He weeps, He weeps when we’re betrayed, when trials come without warning
So come what may His love consoles, He has so much to teach us.
With increased faith we press ahead with greater trust in Jesus.

6-17-21

©2021 David B. Larsen

This work may be copied for incidental, noncommercial church or home use