I've been a-wake for a while now.

It's way too late to be thinking 'bout All the care-less things I've done wrong.

They see mis-takes I've been mak-ing now,
But I've been trying to lay 'em down, Have-n't been my self for so long.

It's been a while since I came to You. I hope You love me no mat-ter what I do. I need some-bo-dy, a God to hold on to Through all the highs and lows. They've been throw-ing sticks and stones, oh. I've been feeling so a - lone, oh. I need Your help to take control of The way I live, like the way You did. Yeah, I know that You can give me hope, and You love me even when I'm broken. You say You'll never let me go, and You light my road. And you heal my soul When they're throwing their sticks and stones.
Got broken bones, and I'm feeling bruised.

Somehow I know You can get me through. You're the only cure for my pain.

And when I'm left here all on my own,

I know that You're never gonna go, and You're gonna make it o-kay.
You're the only one that knows me.

You can see the whole thing. And I know that You love me, too. So I'm getting on my knees to make it right with You. Yeah. You're the only one that knows me.

And You can see the whole thing. And I know that You love me, too. Yeah,
I need You 'cause they've been throwing sticks and stones, oh. I've been feeling so alone, oh. I need Your help to take control of The way I live, like the way You did. Yeah, I know that You can give me hope, and You love me even when I'm broken. You say You'll never let me go, And You light my road and You heal my soul When they're throwing their sticks and stones.

When they're throwing their sticks and stones.
