Ye Who Are Called to Labor

1. Ye who are called to labor and minister for God,
2. Oh, let not vain ambition nor worldy glory stain,
3. Then cease from all light speeches, light-mindedness, and pride;

Blest with the royal priesthood, appointed by his word
Your minds so pure and holy; acquit your-selves like men.
Pray always without ceasing and in the truth abide.

To preach among the nations the news of gospel grace,
While lifting up your voices like trumpets long and loud,
The Comforter will teach you, his richest blessings send.

And publish on the mountains salvation, truth, and peace:
Say to the slumbering nation: "Prepare to meet your God!"
Your Savior will be with you forever to the end.

4. Rich blessings there await you, and God will give you faith.
   You shall be crowned with glory and triumph over death,
   And soon you'll come to Zion and, bearing each his sheaf,
   No more shall taste of sorrow, but glorious crowns receive.
